To a certain extent, Marxist aesthetics has revealed some of the current social development of China, and China has also reasonably used Marxist aesthetics to analyze some important historical phenomena in domestic society, solved some historical problems in society, and also found other problems, which shows that Marxist aesthetic education has a great role in China's historical research, and China also attaches great importance to Marxist aesthetic education.

1. Marxist aesthetic education

Marxist aesthetic education closely links the essence of beauty with the essence of human beings, and also emphasizes the development of society and the transformation of the world according to the law of beauty, emphasizes that all products are human self-reproduction, is a means of self-improvement, and also emphasizes the aesthetic ability of objective things.

2. The practical problem of Marxist aesthetic education in specific school education

Marxist aesthetic education is not only concerned with the aspect of "beauty", but also with it the "human" aspect of the mind, due to the large number of students, relies only on the teachers the work was far from enough, so the work of analysis was left to the school and teaching teachers come to complete together, but also make full use of emerging technologies in the new situation research and analysis. Do a good job in ideological and political education and Marxist aesthetic education teachers need to pay attention to students' mental performance, and then target students analyzing the spiritual aspect, and it's a long time to go through reform and progress.

3. The significance of conducting research on Marxist aesthetic education

China has paid more and more attention to the ideological and political education of students, and this educational work has also been done better and better, successfully strengthening students' attention to the study of Marxism and Marxist aesthetics. The knowledge of Marxism has been added to the classroom teaching of the school, guiding students to learn Marxist aesthetics, and also promoting the ideological construction of the school for the better. Many students can also take this opportunity to study and research relevant knowledge in school, form a correct aesthetic view and firm political beliefs, and grow into a person with a complete mind.
