

---

Cross-Cultural Communication and Foreign Languages Department

---

Proposals for cooperation

About us

The Department is headed by Doctor of Sociology, Doctor of Philology (Russia), Professor Olena Ihgorivna Goroshko.

- Cross-Cultural Communication and Foreign Languages Department was established in 2004. It provides English, German and French for Specific Purposes for undergraduates, master and doctoral students in their professional spheres and specialties for the Schools of Business and Finance, Economics, Economic Informatics and Management and the School of Computer and Information Technologies. In 2015 the Department started to provide Masters' training within a graduate program in specialization «Media Communications».

Contacts:

+38 (057) 707-69-70

cafedramkia.ntuhpi@gmail.com

<http://web.kpi.kharkov.ua/mkia/>

---

Research

The research work of the Department is directed on carrying out scientific researches, participation in scientific projects, conferences and seminars, encouraging undergraduates, graduates, and doctoral students of the University to participate in international and all-Ukrainian competitions and conferences.

The Complex Research Topic of the Department is «Modern Social Communication». In the frame of this research the following issues are developed:

- media communication;
- professional, academic and cross-cultural communication;
- modern methods of teaching Foreign Languages for Specific Purposes;
- PR (public relations);
- e-learning, e-learning 2.0;
- computer-mediated communication.

Special attention at the Department is paid to the study of Computer-Mediated Communication (including Computer-Mediated Communication in Convergent Media), as well as to the problem of e-learning.

---

---

Possible spheres of cooperation

- Students' exchange programmes;
  - Teachers' exchange programmes;
  - Joint master's programme;
  - Joint conferences;
  - Joint investigation projects;
  - Distance learning programmes implementation;
  - Joint participation in Tempus and Erasmus projects.
-